Roquevale Gran Reserva 2009

APPELLATION Alentejo D.O.C.

VARIETY 40% Aragonez, 30% Alicante Bouschet, 30% Tinta Caiada

This is a smooth, light and fruity wine that is ready to drink. It has red berry fruit tones, with a sweet, lightly tannic character and a juicy, mature aftertaste. It's soft and fruity, with bright acidity at the end. $43.99 retail

Rabelo Mosteiro 2014

APPELLATION Douro

VARIETY 40% Touriga Nacional, 20% Touriga Franca, 25% Tinta Roriz, 15% Tinto Cao

Opaque blue-purple. On the nose, spicy, vanilla-inflected notes intermix with generous, powerful blueberry, plum and blackberry fruit. On the palate, rich and well-integrated flavors of blue and black fruit lead to a spicy, mineral finish. Long and persistent. $31.99 retail

Ubriaco Di Raboso

Ubriaco Di Raboso is a raw cow's milk cheese from the Treviso region of Italy. It is aged for six months and then immersed in Raboso grape must for weeks to develop its flavor and aroma and color. The cheese has a light yellow color and fruity taste with a spicy finish. $19.99 lb

Fiuza 2015

APPELLATION Tejo

VARIETY Alvarinho

Soft and smooth, this is a ripe wine. This Alvarinho, planted east of Lisbon, is far south of its normal Vinho Verde region. The wine retains its rich character while adding more tropical fruit flavors. This tangy wine is lightly mineral in texture.

$19.99 retail

Monte dos Cabaços 2009

APPELLATION Alentejo

VARIETY 45% Alicante Bouschet, 30% Touriga Nacional, 20% Aragonez and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon

The 2009 Tinto is an absolutely sensational Portuguese dry red wine aged in stainless steel, as well as in bottle prior to release. Rich, ripe, blackcurrant fruit, notes of pen ink, an opaque purple color, beautiful density, beautiful fruit and silky tannin are all present in this naked, unoaked and rather hefty dry red wine. $21.99 retail
